DAY & TIME: 2nd Tuesday of the month at 10am (except lunch meetings)

October 12

The Women Who Wrote the War* by Nancy Caldwell Sorel

Women war correspondents brought a fresh perspective to the battlefields of WW II. With bravery they covered the war in both Europe and the Pacific using words and pictures.

November 9

The Vanishing Half* by Brit Bennett

Identical twin sisters run away in 1954 from their small southern town. They go to New Orleans to find new lives for themselves. Racial passing underlies the subsequent events.

December 14 (note: LUNCH meeting at Belleair Country Club)

The Mystery of Mrs Christie* by Marie Benedict

In 1926 Agatha Christie went missing for 11 days. Her abandoned car with her clothes inside triggered a search by a thousand police officers and 15,000 volunteers.

January 11

The Secrets We Kept* by Lara Prescott

A fictional account of how Boris Pasternak wrote his Nobel Prize winner Dr. Zhivago—and how the CIA used it as political propaganda during the Cold War.

February 8

The Four Winds* by Kristin Hannah

The Dust Bowl in the West in the 1930's creates a dangerous situation that drives many to go to California in search of a better life. This family's ordeal begins in Texas trying to survive on their farm.

March 8 (note: Guest Author Ben Montgomery will return for this LUNCH meeting at Belleair Country Club)

A Shot in the Moonlight* by Ben Montgomery

Subtitle: How a Freed Slave and a Confederate Soldier Fought for Justice in the Jim Crow South

April 12

Big Lies in a Small Town* by Diane Chamberlain

In 1940 a young female artist wins a national contest to paint a mural on the Post Office wall in rural North Carolina. In 2018 a young woman is given the opportunity to restore it to gain her release from a prison sentence.

May 10

The Silent Patient* by Alex Michaelides

A psychological thriller about a painter who shoots her husband and then doesn't speak. A criminal psychotherapist works with her to figure out why she did it.
